

ALIGNING SYSTEMS FOR HEALTH

Health Care + Public Health + Social Services

TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Monica Bharel, M.D., M.P.H.

Commissioner, Massachusetts Department of Public Health

Monica Bharel oversees the state's public health workforce and an expansive department comprised of eight bureaus and offices responsible for a range of programs, including environmental health, infectious diseases, injury prevention, and maternal and child health.

Jay Bhatt, D.O., M.P.A.

Senior vice president and chief medical officer, American Hospital Association

Jay Bhatt oversees the association's clinical leadership and health improvement activities. These activities include advancing health equity, national strategic partnerships, and government-funded projects, including the Hospital Improvement Innovation Network.

Suzanne Burke, MBA

President and CEO, Council on Aging of Southwestern Ohio

Suzanne Burke leads the Council on Aging of Southwestern Ohio, a regional, nonprofit with over 300 employees. She is among the most active advocates in Ohio's aging network, meeting regularly with legislators, local elected officials, and community groups to keep them informed on aging issues and the need for reform of Ohio's long-term care system.

Ben Goodwin

Executive director, Our House, Inc.

Ben Goodwin leads Our House, an award-winning and nationally recognized nonprofit focused on empowering homeless and near-homeless families and individuals. He has been integrally involved in the expansion of programs and facilities, the refinement of the organization's model as a best practice in the field, and the development of rigorous performance measurement and evaluation to optimize impact.

Laura Gottlieb, M.D., M.P.H.

Associate professor of family and community medicine, University of California, San Francisco

Laura Gottlieb's research focuses on evaluating programs and policies that aim to increase health care system activities that identify and address adverse social conditions. She is director of the Social Interventions Research and Evaluation Network, an institute that synthesizes and catalyzes research at the intersection of social and medical care. Gottlieb is also associate director of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Evidence for Action National Program.

404.413.0314

ghpc.gsu.edu

ghpc@gsu.edu

Glen P. Mays, Ph.D., M.P.H.

Professor and chair of the Department of Health Systems, Management and Policy, University of Colorado School of Public Health

Glen Mays' research examines delivery and financing systems for health care and public health services, with a focus on evaluating health and economic impact. He directs the national program office for the Systems for Action research program, funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, which studies mechanisms for aligning the delivery and financing of medical, social, and public health services.

Jean Flatley McGuire, Ph.D., M.S.P.H.

Professor of practice in the Department of Health Sciences, Northeastern University

Jean McGuire's policy research focuses on the intersection of health care, public health, and human services, and on financing strategies for population health. McGuire focuses on the needs of people with disabilities and chronic conditions.

Nancy Myers, Ph.D.

Vice president of leadership and system innovation, American Hospital Association

Nancy Myers provides leadership for the development of evidence-based population health and system innovation tools to support hospitals and health systems in their work to improve population outcomes in their communities.

Richard W. Puddy, Ph.D., M.P.H.

Director, Policy Research, Analysis, and Development Office, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)

Richard Puddy provides leadership, oversight, and strategic guidance on conducting policy and economic research and analyses, translating science to inform policy action, increasing the CDC's policy analytic capacity, and overseeing CDC policy review.

Beth Siegel, M.C.R.P.

Founder and president, Mt. Auburn Associates

Beth Siegel leads Mt. Auburn Associates in designing and implementing regional economic development strategies and evaluating complex cross-site initiatives. An expert in the realm of program evaluation, she co-leads the evaluation of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Invest Health Initiative.

Patricia L. Smith, J.D.

President and CEO, Funders' Network

Patricia Smith leads the Funders' Network, a membership organization that helps grant makers across North America advance strategies to create fair, prosperous, and sustainable regions and communities that offer everyone the chance for a good life.

Gloria A. Wilder, M.D., M.P.H.

Vice president of innovation and preventive health, Centene Corporation

Gloria Wilder is a leader of Centene's efforts to address social determinants of health. The Social Determinants of Health Innovation team works closely with health plan and subsidiary leadership to support efforts designed to address social determinants of health across all Centene products and membership.

ALIGNING SYSTEMS FOR HEALTH

Health Care + Public Health + Social Services

55 Park Place NE, 8th Floor
Atlanta, GA 30303
ghpc.gsu.edu/project/aligning